

Firemen Increase Emergency Service, Reduce Fire Losses

Albany City Councilmen Monday night received the 1973 annual report of Albany Fire Department in which Fire Chief Gerald Browne reported an increase in emergency services and decrease in fire loss and loss per capita.

In his cover letter to Council, Browne said:

"This report will disclose that although we have had a great increase in our emergency responses both the fire loss and the loss per capita have shown a decrease. Albany's loss of $1.47 per capita, that is far below the per capita loss in surrounding cities, does not give us satisfaction or compacency. We like other communities realize that a careful appraisal of the city's fire problems for the future may indicate that much remains to be accomplished before fire loss figures reach a practical irreducible minimum."

Chief Browne credited their good record to active fire prevention programs, cooperation of the Police department and other city departments as well as the residents of Albany.

Councilman Joe Carlevaro called attention to their services last year and publicly thanked Chief Browne and others who worked on the excellent report.

Following a rather lengthy discussion regarding the proposed amendment to the Home Occupation Ordinance and questioning by Dario Meniketti and Louis Bell, Council voted to post the amendment and hold off a decision for two weeks, Feb. 19.

Mayor Lewis Howell suggested a lighted informational sign in front of the Fire House for those needing help. Other councilmen wondered if San Pablo Avenue might not be a better location. Fire Chief Browne and Administrative Officer James B. Turner will be asked to investigate possible locations for such a sign, possibly considering them at both the Police Station and Fire Station.

In other action Monday, Council:

APPROVED resolutions establishing a red zone on the south side of Dartmouth from San Pablo Avenue to the Kentucky Fried Chicken exit; establishing a stop sign at Jackson and Castro; resolution creating a green zone at Discounts Unlimited and the barber shop on San Pablo, north of Solano; the resolution of Planning and Zoning commission to permit a variance at 1221 Brighton Avenue to cover patios and stairways; the low bid from East Bay Chevrolet of $3,288.92 for a half-ton pickup for the Park and Recreation department.

AUTHORIZED MAYOR HOWELL to proclaim the

Hospitals Need Youth Volunteers

"Young friends are a wonderful morale booster for elderly people, especially those who must spend long, lonely days in convalescent hospitals," said Georgia Lee Silveira, Berkeley Red Cross Youth Service consultant. She is appealing for junior high school age volunteers who would like to offer friendship to patients in Berkeley convalescent hospitals.

Reading aloud, writing letters, pushing wheel chairs and doing simple shopping are typical duties volunteers will be asked to perform for patients. But most important of all is "just to be a friend they can count on for cheer and companionship," Miss Silveira emphasized.

Volunteers are needed after school from 4 to 5:30 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. They should be 12 years of age or older and willing to devote at least an hour a week to visiting in a Berkeley convalescent hospital.

Those interested are asked to contact Miss Silveira at the Berkeley Red Cross chapter.

14 Candidates File For 7 Posts

City Clerk Patt George has released the names of candidates for city and school positions who filed nomination papers by the Jan. 31 deadline. City election is Tuesday, April 9.

City Attorney Lawrence D. Saler will be unopposed.

Those filing for City Council positions now held by Mayor Lewis M. Howell and Councilman Joe Carlevaro, both of whom are candidates, include Patrick Griffin, Lottie Moody Sandford, Leo Vuosalo and Michael Gleason. Jack Dempster took out papers but failed to file them.

Filing against Police Chief James R. Simmons, who was appointed by City Council to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Chief Ralph Jensen, are Albany Police Sgt. Edward Zentner and Kensington Police Officer Richard Hugo Sigmund.

School Board Incumbents Robert Chin, Robert Nehls and Jack Rosano have filed for reelection. Jean Tenret has filed as a candidate for one of those spots.

BART Benefits To Public Discussed

On January 24, Harold Van Coops, deputy health officer of Albany, conferred with David Kelsey, public information officer of BART, on the public health benefits to be derived from more complete utilization of BART transportation.

When BART was formed, its benefits were to include reduction of smog and lead in the air by making one and two passenger auto rides too expensive by comparison. Recently in the news there have been statements that fares must be raised to cover operating expenses. Mr. Kelsey confirmed this and stated that the system will be financially inoperable even with moderate fare increases after January or March, 1975. He emphasized that the condition was caused by unpredictable cost rises, a doubled inflation rate and the recent strike; also that the state law under which BART was formed requires that operating expenses be derived from fares alone. He stated further that if fares cost more, patronage and therefore revenue will be less, consequently a change in the law and a subsidy are being sought.

It will be up to the State Metropolitan Transportation Commission, the Legislature, the Governor and the U.S. Department of Transportation to decide upon a revenue source to be utilized. Major possibilities are: extension of the present sales tax, a property tax, highway funds or license fees, bridge tolls or a direct subsidy. Mr. Kelsey also stated the pleasant news that present schedules promise that transbay operation should start in September this year, according to Van Coops.

Note of Thanks

I would like to thank the Albany Police Department for their quick and efficient job on the suspected burglary at my mother's house on January 28. Although it was a false alarm, I was greatly impressed with the speed and the way everything was handled. I don't think enough can be said for the police department in Albany.

Thanks,
Sincerely,

Red Cross Month

Red Cross Seeks Members; Funds

Melvin M. Swartz has been named to head the Berkeley-Albany Red Cross Chapter's annual appeal for members and funds during March, designated as "Red Cross Month" throughout the nation.

"We're asking people to understand that the American Red Cross is a hometown affair—not just some remote organization that only affects the lives of 'other people'," he said, citing the wide variety of free Red Cross services offered to residents of this community daily through the local chapter, as well as emergency help in times of disasters affecting one or two families or entire communities.

The Red Cross depends entirely on voluntary contributions, Swartz explained.

"Although it shares in United Crusade funds, substantial membership support is also essential if the local Chapter is to meet the growing demands for its services including safety and health education, services to the elderly, blind and mentally ill, youth programs, help to returning veterans and Service-connected families, disadvantaged children and many others."

"The Berkeley-Albany Chapter has cut its administrative expenses to the bone and has been drawing on its reserves for the last two years in order to maintain community programs. We cannot do this much longer," Swartz stated. "We are appealing to the people of Berkeley, Albany and Kensington to help their neighbors by joining the Red Cross in March."

Working with Chairman Swartz on the membership and fund drive committee are: Frederick A. Harris, Mrs. Pauline Hink, Miss Marie Jaymot, Mrs. Robert Rice, Frank Sebastia, Richard Schellhase, Mrs. Ben Solon, Mrs. Robert Taylor, and Chapter Manager Robert Williams.

Difference Between 'Claim' and 'Suit'

City Attorney Lawrence D. Saler has explained why the change of one word in a headline in last week's Times made an incorrect statement.

Although the original copy for the headline and description of what was filed in the body of the Council article was listed as "claim," the word was inadvertently changed in the composing room to "suit."

"They're as different as night and day," Saler said. A claim is a necessary prerequisite to filing a lawsuit against a public entity. There are some exceptions, such as pension matters. While a lawsuit is filed in court, a claim is against an entity with time limitations, giving the entity (City Council) a chance to look at it and take action as it sees fit.

The City Council as an entity has 45 days to take some action. No action may be deemed a denial, but the Council must notify the claimants.

Citizens for Better Parkland filed the claim, which was referred to Saler at the Jan. 28 session of City Council. It listed nine claimants vs. the City of Albany, Albany City Council and Herbert F. Call, as an individual and a member of the Albany City Council.

El Cerrito Pulls Out Win; Albany Loses 2-0

Cougar Field returned to Sunday action this past weekend with a triple header and Amatlan of Oakland came out on the short end as its Alliance team fell to Michoacan 3-1, El Cerrito topped Amatlan's first division club 3-2 in a tight match, but Albany fell by the wayside in its second straight loss, 2-0, to the Oakland Latinos.

Jeff Gillet, the Cerritos perennial striker, got off the first goal of the game by picking up a rebound off the goalie by Jesse Pena.

Amatlan came back some minutes later with a header by Jesse Camacho to tie it up, ending first half scoring.

Halftime picked up the locals spirits and Lauri Rlesanen helped out twice, passing to Adolf Bauer for a breakaway and later to Jesse Pena for a header in close.

Amatlan's Camacho converted a penalty kick to bring the visitors within striking distance 3-2, but El Cerrito held off the rally to retain the win.

Albany, playing below par these last weeks, missed on a penalty kick when they had fallen behind 2-0 on lapses by the defense which the fast Latinos from Oakland picked up. Next week they play away.

El Cerrito headlines Cougar Field action this Sunday as they take on the fast improving St. Bernard, who just came off a 2-1 win over San Pablo. Kick-off at 12:30 p.m. The second match, also a first division encounter, will pit Amatlan vs. San Pablo in the 2:15 finale.

Former Pastor and Wife Honored

On 50th Wedding Anniversary

On February 12, 1974, the Reverend and Mrs. A. O. Odegard will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. Reverend Odegard served as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Albany for 14 years, ending in 1959. Mrs. Odegard served as organist and pianist for the church during their ministry in Albany.

Founders' Day of PTA will be a little late this year because of a change of program format. The new date will be April 16. In formulating the program, the chairpersons representing the Albany schools reported that the old and new will be "harmoniously humorously blended" in presently TOP SECRET plans.

Her mother was in a nursing home when she died two months later. The pastor of their church came to visit. Mert's mother asked if any funerals were scheduled and he said no. The lady said there would be one within the week and that she would be there. She was. The funeral was hers.

ISABELLE AND BUD PERSELL, who have operated Purcell's Apparel at 1111 Solano Ave. for 20 years, are liquidating their stock, having sold the building. Their going-out-of-business sale is terrific, but Albany will miss them. Famous Meats has gone out of business, too. Just won't be the same down on that part of Solano.

DON BRUCE is home again after spending some time in the Intensive Care Unit at Herrick hospital.

EVERYONE wondered what we were eating at a recent luncheon. A fellow leaned over and whispered, "It's O.K. It would have died anyway."

GERALD C. (JERRY) STANLEY, longtime Albany resident and PG&E Bay District Manager headquartered in Richmond, has retired after 33 years with the company. He isn't all that old. Must have started working as a child. He and his bride plan to travel around the U.S. and Mexico in their trailer.

ALBANY'S ELECTION on April 9 may be one of the more exciting in recent history. Only City Attorney Larry Saler is assured of re-election. There are six candidates for the two City Council seats, three for Chief of Police and four for three spots on the Board of Education. See separate story.

HOORAY for Albany High's basketball team, which is now in third place in the Foothill Athletic League, tied with the Del Valle Trojans of Walnut Creek by virtue of a 58-56 victory over the Trojans here Friday night. Unfortunately, the JV and freshman teams lost.

MANY PEOPLE are being shot at or shooting at someone these days, it seems. Understand a sniper was taking potshots at cars in the area of the Sun Valley Shopping Center recently. An Albany woman has a bullet hole in her windshield as a souvenir of the harrowing experience, but didn't report it, we hear, because she didn't know to whom she should report.

SQUIRREL HILL THEATRE at the beautiful First Unitarian Church of Berkeley is now presenting "The Lady's Not For Burning" Friday and Saturday evenings, Feb. 8, 9, 15 and 16, at 8:30 with a matinee at 2:30 Sunday, Feb. 10.

RACING RETURNS to Golden Gate Fields this Friday. Believe they have decided against Sunday racing, which they tried experimentally last season.

POOR HENRY KRUSE had to pay a fine at the last Lions Club meeting for failing to report in the press that tickets for the Feb. 22 Crab Feed are available at Albany Chamber of Commerce and Caruso's State Farm Insurance office. (Maybe they'll give your money back now, Henry!)

THEY'VE STARTED a fund for David Jaramillo, star athlete who is in Brookside hospital following a shooting a week ago, at Mechanics Bank in Albany, account No. 405-632366. For information, contact Terri Scoggins, 525-7230.

DELICIE THOMPSON at Security Savings and Loan has Federal and State Income Tax forms if you need any. From Albany Rota-News: "Invest your money in taxes. They're sure to go up."

SEVERAL YEARS ago, our grandson, David Lund, gave his Mom a card from "the funny thing that happened to you one day." Saturday she gave him a birthday cake inscribed to "the funny thing that happened to me one day."

KERMIT BANKSON has been named interim head football coach at Albany High, replacing Bill Nash, who continues as head golf coach and teacher. Craig Ortleib and Bob Hoyle will assist Bankson.

JUST COMPLETED, along with several other Albany people, a year of "on call" duty on the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court jury. During the year, we were called five times. Once I was on vacation. All the other times followed a similar pattern. We sat and SAT without a word from anyone about what was going on. People came and went. The roll was called. We fidgeted and stewed. Finally the judge came out and excused us. Three times the cases were settled out of court and the last time the judge disqualified himself because he was acquainted with one of the parties involved. Don't know how to change this, but most of us felt we had wasted most of a morning. It WOULD help if someone could make a welcoming speech and explain what might happen. One of my fellow jurors thought she would have been happy if they had provided coffee.

FERN LUOMA thinks it would be a shame if they take Daylight Savings away, particularly in Albany. Now the older youngsters go to school when it's dark, but they're used to it. The beautiful part of the time change is that children attending Middle School can now go home at 5 p.m. in broad daylight.

ON SATURDAY, Feb. 23, the Albany High PTA will sponsor its annual Scholarship Luncheon from 1-3 p.m. A bake-booth and boutique will open at 12:30 p.m., offering, among other things, plants, white elephants and antiques. If you wish to donate anything, call 526-6802.

THAT NIGHT, Feb. 23, American Legion Post 292 will sponsor a social night for the March of Dimes, at the Veterans' Memorial Building. They used to have basketball games.

CLEANED FROM the Legion Post publication, TNT: Frank McLaughlin is out of the hospital and recuperating at home. Lois Purcell, who was out of action with a broken bone in her foot, is up and around again.

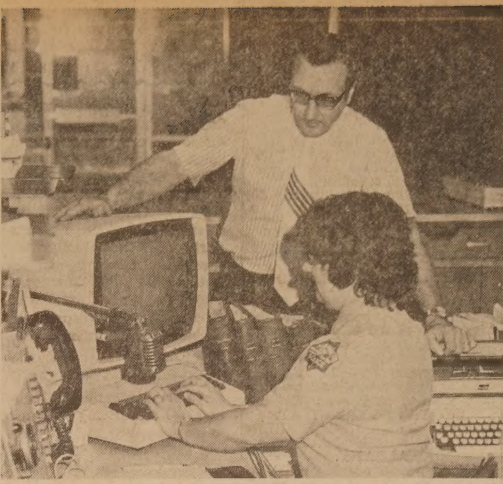

WOULD LOVE to find time to poke around the new shops and restaurants on Solano, or even to visit Dr. Mike Floyd's new veterinary hospital.

MAJOR HAROLD E. MORTON JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Morton of Peralta Ave., has received the U.S. Air Force Commendation Medal at Maxwell AFB, Ala.

THE SON AND DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce L. (Red) Davis (he's with Headington and Preels Realty) honored them at a party at the Hillside club in observance of their 35th anniversary. The band they'd engaged pulled out at the last minute, so AHS Band Director Ernest "Don" his came around with the AHS jazz band. A fine time was had by all.

COUNCILMAN JOE CARLEVARO is alternate for Piedmont Vice Mayor Arthur Flegal to the Local Agency Formation Commission of Alameda County.

WE HAD A going-away party at Children's Friday for Ronald Sixty III, a two-year-old tyk who weighs only 14 pounds and who has all but lived at the hospital since birth. He's had two open heart surgeries, one close heart surgery and he's wearing his second Pacemaker. Ronnie has become the pet of the Intensive Care Nursing staff and they all turned out to wish him and his parents well. Four television stations came out to cover the party and there was lots

POLICE CHIEF JAMES SIMMONS & THE INSTANT HOT LINE
Police Woman Carla Hertzog demonstrates its instant response

New Police Hotline Installed Here

By the last of March or first of April, Albany Police Chief James Simmons will have a micro-wave "hotline" with which to instantly communicate with all other police chiefs in Alameda County.

The 40-foot tower has been installed and the transmitter is operative. As soon as all other police headquarters are ready to operate, local officers will no longer have to rely on telephone wires for communication, which could be important in case of natural disaster or sabotage, Chief Simmons said.

Alameda County is financing the project, which has a price tag of about $28,000 in Albany alone.

Computer equipment in the Albany station has been improved, enabling officers stopping a driver or suspect to know in seconds whether that person is wanted or evaded a court summons. The background information almost instantly appears on a television screen on the desk of the Albany police dispatcher and is quickly passed along to the officer on the street.

Television is the latest innovation in the Police Information Network (PIN) between Bay Area cities. A new computerized "Criminal Orientation Record" (CORPUS) is in the future with an ever-expanding of dialtasting around dinner time to catch all the news programs. Channel 4 had a shot of me taking a picture of Ronald. By 11 p.m., I had all kinds of people waiting for the news. You guessed it—the party did not make the late news because of the big fire in Oakland. Fame is fleeting.

Bicycle Detail

We have now arrived at the final lesson . . . No. 13! I want to go over one other important subject with you that we have not touched on . . . lane changing. Lane changing is when you are riding down the street in the right hand portion of your side of the street, and you want to change to the left hand portion, or the left lane, in preparation for making a left turn. This where most bicyclists become very careless. They ride along looking over their shoulders to see what is coming from behind, and pay little attention to what they are approaching in front of them. This is hazardous!

The proper way to change lanes, when you are riding a bicycle, is to LISTEN first. You can usually hear a car approaching from the rear and if you hear traffic close behind, do not bother taking the time to look behind you . . . WAIT until it sounds like there are no cars there. You should avoid taking your eyes off the road in front of you as much as possible.

If it sounds clear behind you, then look, and if it is clear make your left turn ARM SIGNAL, before changing lanes. Making the arm signal is of great importance . . . DO NOT forget this! Not only does your left turn arm signal tell the drivers behind you that you are intending to turn left, but it tells others ahead of you, and this too is important!

When you have made your left turn arm signal for about 1/2 block, if traffic behind you is still clear, or well back of you, slowly ease over into the left lane. NEVER do this quickly or without looking behind you over your shoulder, or without giving your left turn hand signal!

The same procedure holds true if you are for some reason riding in the left lane and want to change to the right lane, to get back close to the curb or to make a right hand turn.

Now, let's say you want to turn left, you have gone through the above procedure to change lanes, to get into the left turn position, and you are waiting in the left lane for the traffic light to change so you can make your turn. When the light changes, remember, the traffic coming toward you must be allowed to pass first, even if you must wait while the traffic light goes through another complete series of changes! DO NOT attempt to go ahead of the oncoming traffic! If there is a left turn green arrow, of course, then you may proceed as soon as the light changes and the arrow comes on.

IMPORTANT: While making your left hand turn, STAY in the same lane you were in when you started your turn. If you allow yourself to ease over into the next lane to your right, you may go directly in front of a car that is also making a left turn. After your turn is completed is time enough to start glancing over your right shoulder, and making your right turn signal, to get yourself back near the curb for regular riding. ALWAYS use your hand signals when changing lanes . . . this is the law, and it is the ONLY safe way to change lanes!

QUESTIONS

To change lanes you must first look over your shoulder, then if safe, use hand signal.

then ease slowly into the desired lane. If too much traffic is coming from behind you, you must wait until it passes before you change lanes. When making a left turn you MUST stay in the same lane to complete your turn as you were in when you started.

I have enjoyed providing this training course for young bicyclists to learn the rules of the road. It is my hope that each and every one following this series has learned a lot about safe biking and respect for others on the streets and highways.

When you have completed this lesson, and it has been corrected by one of your parents, send all of your completed lessons to my office. Enclose a letter from the parent who has been helping you with your lessons, stating that you have completed the course satisfactorily and learned your lessons well. You will receive in return a handsome, wallet sized card to carry with you, showing you are a qualified bicycle operator. Good luck and happy biking!

PEAK OF EFFICIENCY

After five or six hours at the wheel, points out the National Automobile Club, you have passed your peak of efficiency.
